HEALTH DEPARTMENT EXPANDS JUPITER SERVICES

JUPITER, FL—The Palm Beach County Health Department has expanded its Family Planning Services at the Jupiter Health Center, 6405 Indiantown Rd.

Effective immediately, people now have access to physicals, including PAP smears, breast exams, sexually transmitted disease testing, pregnancy testing and contraceptives.

“The Jupiter Health Center has long been offering immunizations for foreign travel and to school aged children along with other services. We are pleased to offer the full range of family planning services,” said Health Department Director, Jean Malecki, M.D.

Walk-in pregnancy testing is available Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM with all other services being provided by appointment at 561-746-6751.

The health department also operates clinics in Riviera Beach, West Palm Beach, Lantana, Delray Beach and Belle Glade.
