HEALTH DEPARTMENT TO CONDUCT FAIR

DELRAY BEACH, FL—The Palm Beach County Health Department's Delray Beach Health Center is conducting a health fair, Thursday, October 7, 2004 from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM. The event will be free to the public and will feature numerous healthy activities.

“This year we have put together a program which will be fun and informative for all”, said Delray Health Center Volunteer coordinator Barbara Purr. “There will be glucose, vision and hearing screenings as well as free mammograms to qualified persons and a minimal charge for those not qualifying courtesy of the HOPE Project.”

Children will be entertained in the bounce house and free snow cones will be available to all. The adults will have the opportunity to attend informative seminars on how to use a (AED monitor) defibrillator courtesy of the Delray Beach Fire Department and the Sheriff's Office will conduct a Senior Safety Presentation. For Information call 561-274-3156.

Many health and civic groups will also be represented and available to answer questions regarding a person's health. Groups include:

American Lung Association	Blood Mobile	Dairy Farmers
Komen Foundation	Literacy Coalition	Medicaid
Maternity/SOBRA	Palm Tran	The HOPE Project
Sam's Club	WIC services	Palm Beach County Health
